“ Dean and I reunited following our Chesapeake High School 40th Reunion (2009). He was unable to attend due to his health. We met that fall in Lexington, KY. and have emailed ever since. Dean was always quick to share God's love and compassion. I know he is with our Lord, Jesus Christ, praising God and enjoying eternity. We talked about our families and growing up, our adventures and travel. I know Dean loved Jared beyond what he could express. That's odd in itself, because Dean never seemed to be at a loss for words. He was a good friend and I will miss him greatly. I am saddened because of my loss, not what Dean has gained. I will see him again....that's the good news! I pray that God will touch each heart with peace and understanding concerning the loss of Dean. Gloria Henson Quick Dunn, NC

“ Hello, my name is Jared Waller, the only childson of the late Bernard Dean Waller. I mainly just wanted to post on here a big thank you to each of you, who took the time out of your very busy schedules, to pray for us and post a lovely comment on this funeral home site. Even though it is still taking time for me personally to deal with the loss of my Dad, your thoughts and prayers are an quite the encouragement and help to my family as we begin to move on. God bless each of you and your lovely families, too! Sincerely, Jared Dean Waller

“ I went to High School with this dear person and always enjoyed his kindness towards others, his wonderful stories of the people in the area in which we grew up, and most of all his Love for the Lord which he shared openly with everyone he met. If you knew 'Bernard' you know he would give you the shirt off his back. This past Christmas my husband and I were very blessed to have 'Bernard' which is what I always called him to spend Christmas with us at our home. What a wonderful blessing he was to us both as we all three put together details from our memories of the past, listened to him play music for us and sing, and thanked God for the here and now. I miss you a lot my friend and know one day we will meet again in Heaven where I am sure I will find you standing by the Lord helping him to greet others into Heaven with your smile and love of the scriptures. I know you are at peace now in the home of your Savior and friend. Peggy Dotson, Rowe and husband Steve

“ I didnt know Dean personally, he called my parents house one evening to talk to my mom Joann Hayes Ellis, I live beside them and take care of them. He called and i asked who he was, he said Bernard Waller's son, and I said Bernard was my first bus driver , we lived on Davidson Hill at the top,He called to say he had some of my grandmother Charlene Hayes poems he wanted to mail to my mom.A delightful conversation with him talking bout mom and growing up in Getaway talking bout his dad Bernard and how sweet he was to a scared little first grader riding her first bus. My mom passed a day after Dean .I remember Kenny and Brenda riding the bus as a little girl..I so enjoyed talking to him and he sure was a talker.Im so sorry Kenny and Brenda. Jana Ellis Nicholas

“ ' MY thoughts and prayers goes out to Dean's family. Dean was so talented in many ways. I will never forget watching him play the piano and listening to him sing in many churches. My mother (Dean's aunt Audrey) always made a special effort to go and listen to him at many places. He will be missed by many people. Dean now is up in heaven and playing music for his family that has long gone on. He will be sadly missed by many people who knew him.' Linda (Clark) , Ron, & Bianca Bartram
