“ Bill sat with us through many a friendly card game at the Chesapeake Fire Dept. He, J. J. Turner, Larry Sumpter, & I spent many an hour playing Hearts, Spades, or Uno. But there was much more to our friendship. We fought fires together, depending on one another for our safety. And Bill seemed to always be at Schneider's with a comforting word when we lost relatives & friends. Now, God has called him away from pain, sorrow, & illness. While we will miss him every day of the rest of our lives, let us remember we can be with him some day, & he will know nothing but eternal joy from now on !
