“ Charlie, this is your friend Dan Seibert. i want to express my condolencnces to you in the passing of your Dad. It is never easy to lose your Mom or Dad. I know because my Dad passed at 52 and my Mom at 87, So, I know it is very hard for you to face his passing at 88. I want to share a couple of high school memories. at that time you were the best 800 runner I ever saw! Also, I remember you and your date driving me and Carolyn Jeffers to the prom! Early Sunday morning you drove Harry Mayenchein and I to a Reds Phillies DH, The way I remember it the Reds won both games! Take care and I hope to see you soon! Dan

“ Sally, Charlie Jr & Kenny. I am so sorry for the loss of Charlie. I remember when I 1st met him, I worked @ Montys Pizza. He would come in for lunch. When I lived on 2nd ave he was always sweet to me. He was like a dad to me. I will never forget the nites we all sat in your yard & talked. Those were good times, & good memories of everybody. Please accept my deepest sympathy & I will be praying for all of you. Sally, I love & miss you. I probably wont be able to come to viewing or funeral. My car broke down & I have an awful time walking. But I will be thinking of all of you. Love you, Joyce (Drummond) Ferguson.
