“Eloise was more like an aunt to me than just a friend. Her husband Cash introduced my mom and dad to each other. I imagine until yesterday that Eloise knew me longer than any other human being. Our families were such close friends you thought we were related. I am so sorry for Carol and Becky that they lost their mother but I'm sure all of us are happy that she is reunited in heaven with Cash and with our Lord. Little known trivia--I called her Pete when I was a child--never knew why--but knew later on that she preferred to be called by her name. Eloise was a strikingly beautiful woman and as kind and sweet as any person I have ever known. Michael Smith
