“ When the Lord calls our loved ones home, He leaves a gift of memories in exchange. Take comfort in knowing she is much better off than any of us she left here. Rejoice that one day you will be reunited again. May God comfort each of you during this time.

“ I loved Sister Maxine dearly. She always had a smile and something sweet to say to me. She gave such wonderful hugs ) She loved her family, both church and blood. She's joined Brother Harold and I'm sure they are having a ball in Heaven with my mom, Bro Hager, Sis Lois, Bro Junior, and Sis Mamie. What a homecoming! I will see you again. I love you!

“ Aunt Maxine, You made life a little sweeter, Without you there were many occasions I would have missed, things I could not have achieved and don't think I would have grown into the person I am without your influence. You were very special to me, you will be missed so much. I love you always. Your Niece, Carolyn
