“ I'll never forget the night you taught me how to make peanut butter fudge...or watching you teach my boys how to plant vegetables. Or the day I was sick and you took all 4 kids fishing until like 4am. There are so many more...good and bad...and I cherish every single one. The boys and I love you JC...miss you always. ❤️ Krystena

“ He was such a bright loving person who would help anyone he could. He was a devoted Christian who spread the word to anyone he came across. He was an amazing and loving father! He was well loved by many close friends and family.
