“ My sister and I worked for Mr. Robert. I'd say by the second week we were friends. I can't imagine anyone being around him and not loving this man. He was so kind and had such a good heart, and the greatest laugh. We had conversations on so many topics, Life, Death, Politics, and family. He loved his sister Barbara, he told me that Barbara had saved his life. He said her and Tom took good care of him, and they did. My sister and I miss Mr. Robert so much. Mr. Robert to us, you did not die, because you will always live in our thoughts and in our hearts. I will cherish the memories of the friendship we had, I just wish we could have more time. We miss and love you, and yes, we will see you after. Margie & Tanya

“ James Robert was a good neighbor and friend. He would share a meal with us and then came a knock on our door and a BEAUTIFUL bouquet of flowers would be delivered. Tom would visit James Robert and they would talk about many things. He loved classical music, watching the birds and walking on our country road. He will be missed. Tom and Judy Ross

“ I remember a fun-loving boy from childhood visits to our grandparents' home. We always had cousins to play with. In recent years my husband and I were able to spend time with Robert and we enjoyed our trips to Bob Evans Restaurant. We will greatly miss these times with Robert.
