“ I have so many memories of my brother to cherish. From riding on the back of his motorcycle in Getaway when we were younger; to our country drives, which we did a couple times a week, when he was in his early 40s; to watching silly funny movies here recently. My brother meant everything to me and he took a big part of my heart and soul with him. Eyes as bright as a summer blue sky and a smile as big as the world that would make u smile back to him even on ur worst day. I love you bubba with all of me and dude u are missed so damn much 🥹💔. But fly high Bubba u was the greatest best friend a sister could ever have!!

“ Joey's eyes always were bright, however, I remember when we all went to Ritter Park and he had the best time visiting with Layla, Adam and MJ. He was always a perfect gentleman and respected my son and myself. My heart is broken for Mary Jane and the kids as now they're left with memories that they will cherish forever. Tanya
