“ I remember how well Aunt Mary played the organ when my Daddy and the other brothers and sisters would all play music and sing when they all got together.

“ Aunt Mary was one of the most funniest of my aunt. She always made all of us kids laugh about something. I always like visiting with her and the family. Enjoyed listening to her play the piano and singing with her and the girls. There was nothing better than going to the family reunions and having a great time with all my aunt, uncles and cousins singing together. Aunt Mary will be missed by many people. I Love you, Aunt Mary.

“ Aunt Mary you were always special in the eyes of those who knew you. Your laughter and humor were top shelf and appreciated by all. I am so glad that last month (Sept) my brother Harold and I got the opportunity to come and see you when I was there. You were the same as always, full of humor and laughter. May God hold you in his hands forever.....Love You Ray McKeand.
