

Mildred Louise Wright

March 21, 1921 - March 1, 2021

Mildred Louise Wright, 99, of Huntington, West Virginia, formerly of Ohio, passed away peacefully March 1, 2021 at Heritage Center in Huntington, West Virginia. She was born March 21, 1921, a daughter of the late Jesse VanWay and Bessie Gibson VanWay Graybeal. Mildred loved God's Word and read scripture daily. She was a homemaker and a very talented woman. She was an avid "crocheter" and an artist in many ways. She drew beautiful pictures from memory, she was able to see things once and then turn around and make the item herself, and she loved gardening. She was an excellent cook and could prepare the most delicious meals. She dedicated her life to her family. She was a very generous person, always ready to care for and support family members as well as strangers. She will be greatly missed. Mildred was preceded in death by her husband, Claude Dalton Wright. She was also preceded in death by her sister, Helen Frances Estep and her brother, Carl VanWay. She is survived by her sister, Maxine Adkins of Huntington, West Virginia, and several nieces and nephews. A funeral service will be conducted by Father Charles Moran at 12:00pm on Saturday, March 6, 2021 at Schneider-Hall Funeral Home, Chesapeake, Ohio. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, please reach out to someone in a long-term care facility or nursing home and bring light to their day. “ So many as a kid,visiting her in warren ohio,at the pink house,in the kitchen,out in the yard,canning,mowing,but can't put a finger on one,I guess as a grown man,needing a place to stay or live,she open her door,and even fixed me meals,she really was generous,and loved us kids,told!! Us though if we were wrong,she said Helen would want her too. I love you aunt pudie.thank you for everything.
