“ I am Bob's cousin. I have many fond memories of Bobby when we were youngsters. He was a good friend and a good guy. So sorry for the loss and my thoughts are with Ann and Heather and the grandkids. May God give you comfort at this time.

“ So sad to hear of Bob's passing. I'll miss his determination. When he was at Liebert/Vertiv, he would push himself to work, even when you could tell it was hard on him. I'll miss him.

“ In all the years we sold cars together, we had many colorful stories to tell about our experiences. But Bob's life was never complete until he meet and married his beloved wife Ann. And then when Heather was born, hie life was totally complete. I remember when my son Dustin was little, and my niece Deanna ,was at the dealership, the three of them were always shooting rubber bans at each other, or just playing with other toys. Any time the kids can into the dealership, the first thing they did was go look for Bob.
