“ Mr and Mrs Thoman, Linda and Lee. I am so sorry for your loss and I am praying that each of you can find solace in your Faith. GOD is with you, and will not let this time be of complete sorrow. Take time out and stroll down the path where Steve's footprints have been. Linda, you know I love you girl. I wish I could be there. Debbi

“ Steve's death has brought bitter-sweet memories to me. He was in and out of my life quite a bit in my teenage years but has lingered there silently as the years passed. It has been several years now since our last meeting, it was in Church. I had just moved back to South Point after being gone many years. I didn't recognize him but he came up to me and introduced himself and gave me a huge hug. How odd that this act would help me feel I was finally home, back to my roots where my family and friends were, after being gone 20 years. I am sure he's kickin' back and a grinnin', I know it's been a long time since he's been able to. You'll be missed Steven not only from your family and close friends but from stragglers such as I. Another sweet soul GOD has pulled home, lucky him.
