“ My condolences to the family. Violet gave me my first hair cut back in the mid fifties. I had cut off one of my pony tails in kindergarten. Mom was in a panic. Violet fixed me right up. She took care of the Eiselstein women's hair until she retired or we were out of town. She was so talented and loved her family. May she rest in peace and your fond memories sustain you.

“ Violet was a remarkable lady. I have many fond memories of going to her shop in the sixties where you were always greeted and treated with such warm feelings by Violet and Bob. I know her family is going to miss her, but what memories she has left for you all to share. Rest in peace, dear Violet.... Patricia Raines
