WILLIAM (BILL) E. BURDEN OBITUARY (Self-written) A Christian, a husband, a dad and a Granddad, lived a long, loving and productive life. Burden, who was called home to Heaven on May 8th, with his loving wife by his side at Rhea Medical Center in Dayton, TN. He is survived by his partner, wife and best friend of 47 years, Sharon D. Burden. They have four children, two sons, Victor Gischler (Jackie), from Baton Rouge, LA, and Bill (Cammie) Burden, from Winter Springs, FL; two daughters, Morgan Burden from New Orleans, LA, and Rachael Burden from Chicamauga, GA; He has four grandchildren. Bill was born on May 21, 1939, to Edgar Burden, deceased, and Anna Hay-Burden, deceased. He grew up in Jersey City, NJ, graduated from Wagner College, NY, and was a member of the Armed Forces; He served as a bank president in Kissimmee, FL; a successful business entrepreneur for several businesses for 10 years. He served as owner and practitioner of American Hearing, LLC, for 20 years before retiring at age of 81. Bill was of the Christian faith who paid his tithes without fail, gave to the church, to overseas missions, and to the poor throughout his adulthood. He was faithful to help family members through many crises and set a priority of reading his Bible every morning before starting his day. He loved reading and all professional sports. Some of his favorite memories were playing Little League and playing basketball in college. He knew how to encourage others to become all they could be and was a model to many to "NEVER GIVE UP," regardless of circumstances. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, but we will see him again and learn of the great rewards that were awaiting him in Heaven! “ I painted this ship for my dad a few years ago, and it represents the journey of life and reminds me that I was lucky enough to have had a father who showed me the importance of living and experiencing life while we can because tomorrow isn't promised.

“ Bill taught me more than how to fit hearing aids. He helped so many people and saw the best in people. He lives on in some of my best memories. God bless you Sharon! Stephanie Bryan

“ There are no words to express the blessing that Bill Burden, my uncle, has been to me all through the years. I was a single mom with two children and many times he came to my rescue helping me to have a car, to help with my kids school clothes and other necessities. When I moved to Florida to take a job he paid for my children to go to a Christian school so they would not be in the local school where there were problems. I am going to miss him so much but I know that he is no longer suffering and that we will see each other again on the other side, praise God! I thank you Jesus for making away for us to have eternal life!
