“ I am so very sorry to hear the passing of Bill. I can remember when we were all growing up he would be standing on the bridge watching the fish & would say, "that's pretty good bait there. May need to get it if you plan on fishing." Or just his smile & always checking on others. His heart was certainly a huge one & a blessing. I can remember riding my bike with my cousins to Humphreys store & he saw us. His first words were, "Are you kids okay?" He followed us up McKinney that day making everyone mad in behind him. He wanted to make sure we were safe. Truly a special human being & a blessing. I am truly sorry for your loss & please know we are here if you need anything. Love, LeAnn "Bowles" Randolph

“ When we had a historic flood in Louisiana right after we moved there, Bill and David drove straight to New Orleans from West Virginia to help us gut our house. We worked like dogs for 3 weeks. Bill rewired the house for us and it was a 5000 sq. ft. house. No other family came to help us, just Bill and David. We had 4 feet of water in the house. I will always remember him taking time off of work to help us when no one else would. I will forever be grateful to Bill for that. David stayed on for 2 years because that's how long it took to rebuild that house. Bill was always the man you could count on when things got bad. Rest in peace Bill. You are truly missed.

“ Dad loved fishing and he raised us all in a tent with a fishing pole attached to our hands. This one time we were fishing, I was standing out on a log pretending to fly fish and hooked myself in the back. After his initial worry and fright, we laughed about how I'd caught the biggest fish of the day. I will miss you, daddy! Thank you for all you have done and all you've given to our family! I love you!
